Hadleigh Tennis Club
Layham Road, Hadleigh, Suffolk

From the A1071 (Sudbury, Ipswich)

Enter Hadleigh from the north using the B1070 – this is the staggered junction with the A1071 and the A1141 Lavenham road. (NB – if you're coming from Ipswich, ignore the earlier junction towards the industrial estate also labelled "Hadleigh B1070").

Stay on the B1070 as it passes the White Hart public house on your left and Hadleigh Cricket Club on your right. After some bends the road will straighten out to become the very long Hadleigh High Street.

Stay on the B1070/High Street, looking out for The George public house on your left. Once you have passed The George, look for Duke Street on your right. This will be the second turning on your right and is signposted to the Riverside Walk and Lower Layham.

Follow Duke Street over the medieval bridge and out of Hadleigh on to the Layham Road. The courts will become visible on your left adjoining the rugby club and general sports ground. There is car parking.

From the A12 (Colchester, E Bergholt)

From the A12 take junction 31 with the B1070, signposted Hadleigh and East Bergholt. Take the B1070 to Hadleigh. You will drive through Holton St Mary and (Upper) Layham before entering Hadleigh from the south on the very narrow Benton Street. (Please note: you cannot drive between Upper & Lower Layham – there's a river in the way.)

After a STOP junction with Station Road, the B1070 carries on to become Hadleigh High Street.

As you inch along the High Street, look for a signpost on your left for Lower Layham. The turning itself is immediately after the library, also on your left, and is called Duke Street.

Follow Duke Street over the medieval bridge and out of Hadleigh on to the Layham Road. The courts will become visible on your left adjoining the rugby club and general sports ground. There is car parking.
